The screenshot displays a web application interface for a job portal. The browser window shows the address bar with the URL `127.0.0.1:5000/setprofile`. The application has a blue header with the title "Jobs Map" and navigation links for "Profile" and "Logout".

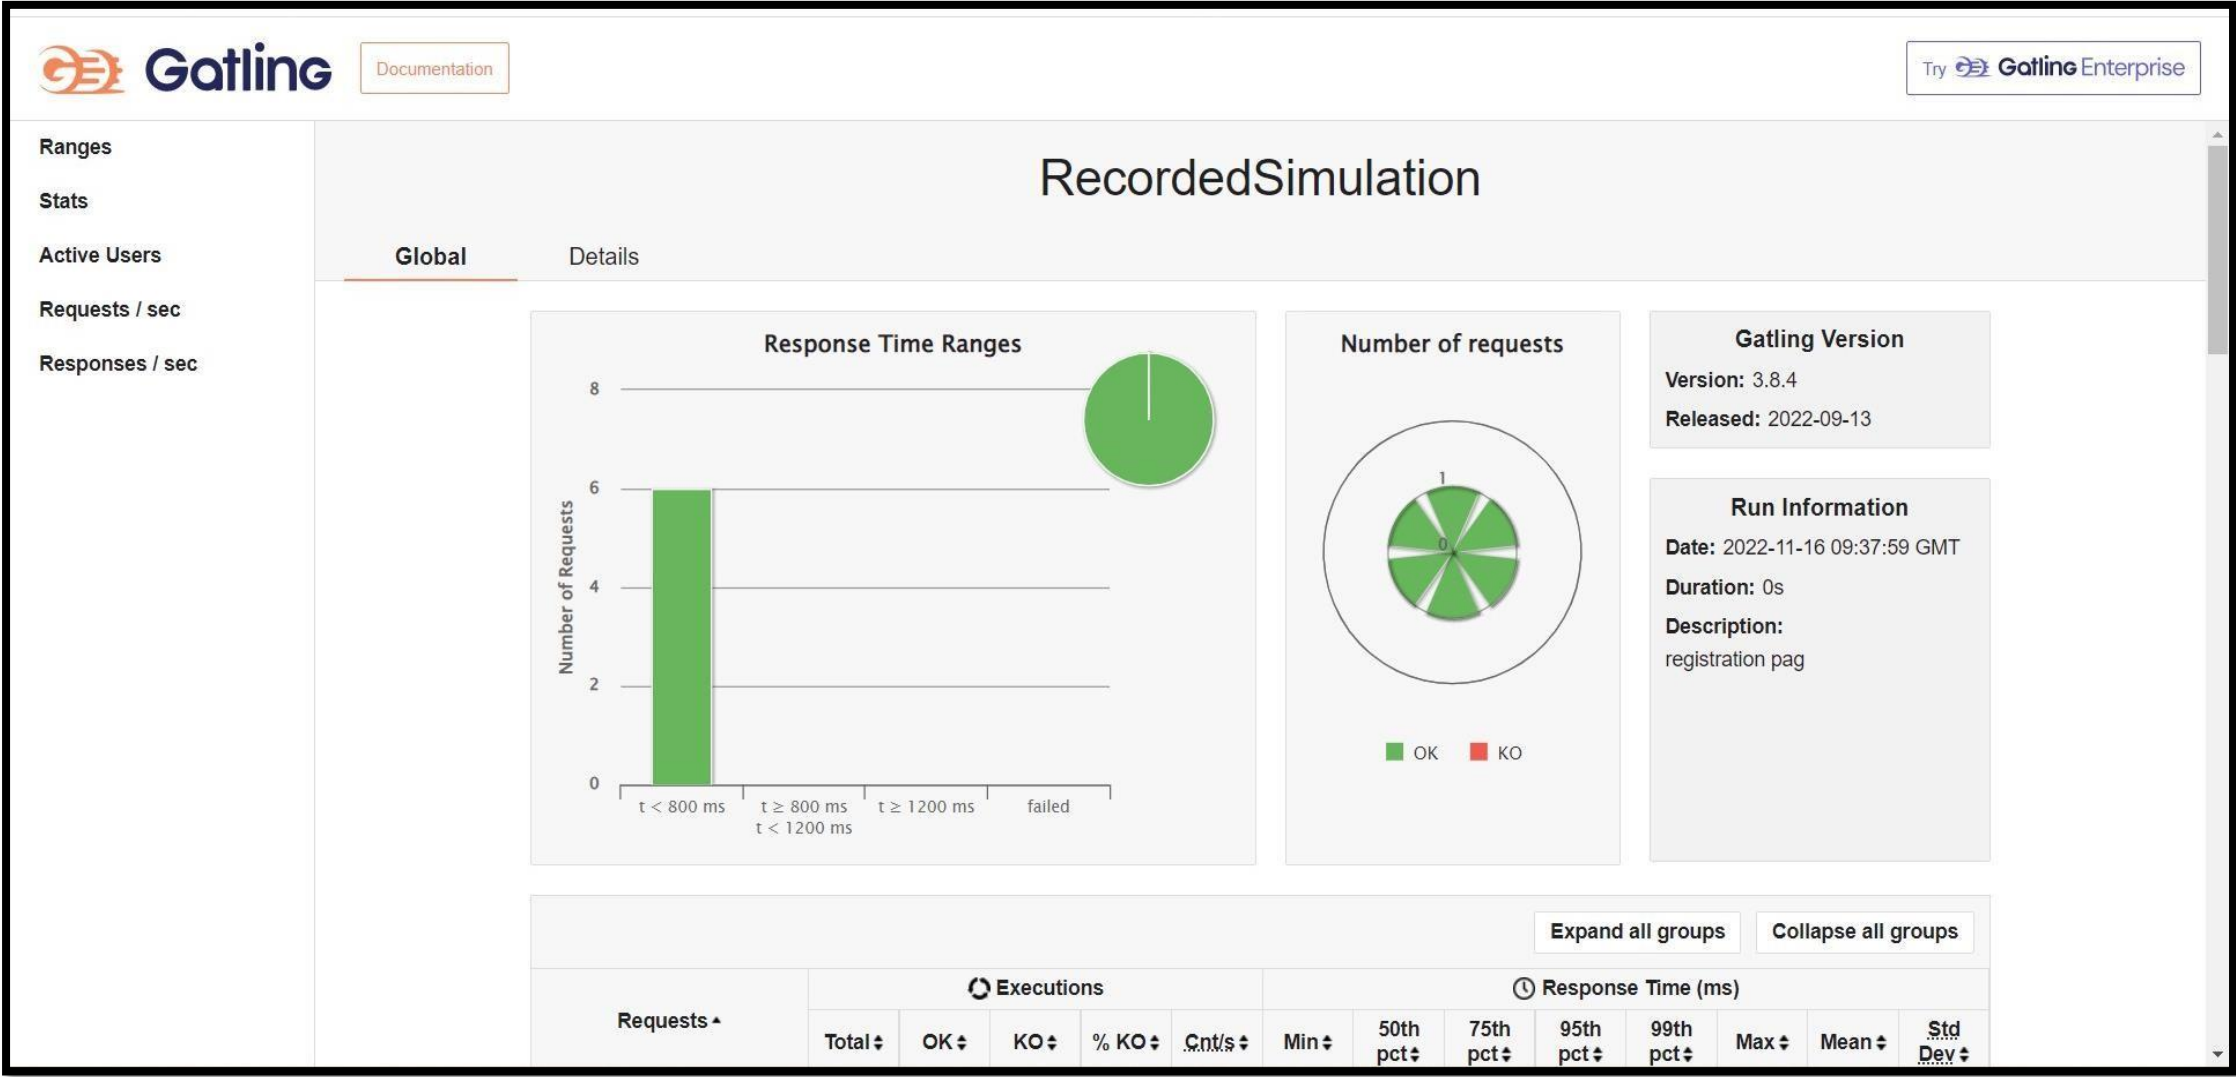

The main content area features a grid of job listings, each with a company name, a job title, and an "Apply Now" button:

- Amazon: Software Development Engineer-Test
- Cognizant: Programmer Analyst Trainee
- Canonical: Security Engineer- Ubuntu
- Paypal: Software Engineer
- Amazon: Data Scientist Intern
- Conxai: Deep Learning Engineers
- Hexaware: Application Front end Developer
- Amazon: Data Scientist I
- Microsoft: Software Engineer II

An "Activate Windows" watermark is visible in the bottom right corner of the job listings area, with the text "Go to Settings to activate Windows."

The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the system tray with the date "16-11-2022" and time "00:56". The taskbar also includes icons for the Start menu, Search, and various applications like File Explorer, Microsoft Edge, and Visual Studio Code.
